Top 10 Reasons to Meet in Baltimore

There are so many ways to get in on beautiful, easy-to-enjoy Baltimore. These are the hottest 10 reasons to love our city, but once you visit, we know you'll find a whole lot more!

1 Easily Accessible

Baltimore is easily reached by car, plane, bus or train—and Baltimore/Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport is just 15 minutes from downtown, with over 700 average daily arrivals and departures.

2 Easy and Fun to Get Around

Ed Kane's Water Taxis and Ride the Ducks tours offer a unique way to see the city. And don't forget your walking shoes—most everything you'll want to see and do is within just "two feet."

3 World-Class Convention Center

The Baltimore Convention Center can accommodate up to 80 percent of today's meetings and conventions with 300,000 square feet of exhibit space, 54 meeting rooms totaling 85,000 square feet, and a 36,000-square-foot ballroom.

4 The Inner Harbor

Lined with numerous attractions, restaurants and hotels, Baltimore's famed Inner Harbor is the crown jewel of the city and is within footsteps of both the Convention Center and numerous hotels.

5 Wide Range of Accommodations

From economy to upscale, there are 6,500 hotel rooms near the Inner Harbor and the Baltimore Convention Center—and another 7,000 just a short ride away.

6 Unique Experiences

More than 130 Baltimore attractions run the gamut from high art and educational fun to crazy kitsch and just plain amusement.

7 World-Renowned Cuisine

From five-course dinners on white linen to a genuine Maryland crab feast on brown paper, Baltimore serves up a whole new way of eating at hundreds of restaurants and entertainment venues.

8 Extraordinary Neighborhoods

Visit Little Italy for great food, Mount Vernon for arts and culture, the Inner Harbor for family fun and Fell's Point and Federal Hill for antique shopping and pub crawling.

9 Connect Baltimore Ticketing System

Through this convenient service, visitors can purchase tickets for more than 50 museums, attractions and harbor adventures at www.baltimore.org or by calling 877-BALTIMORE.
