ARL 160th Members Meeting

A View from Campus: The E-Science Institute Post-Capstone

Wednesday, May 2, 2012  4:00 – 5:15
Convener: James L. Mullins - Dean of Libraries and Esther Ellis Norton Professor, Purdue University

Speakers:

Robert Byrd – Associate University Librarian for Collections and User Services, Duke University

Deborah A. Carver – Philip H. Knight Dean of Libraries, University of Oregon

Annette Valenta – Associate Dean for Health Informatics and Technology, University of Illinois at Chicago.
The e-Science Institute coordinated by MacKenzie Smith, DeEtta Jones and Judy Ruttenberg.

With faculty for the webinars and capstone events drawn from ARL institutions:

Jake Carlson – Purdue
Mike Furlough - Penn State
Chuck Humphrey - University of Alberta
Nancy McGovern - ICPSR at the University of Michigan
David Minor - University of California, San Diego
Chris Shaffer - Oregon Health & Science University
How best would you describe your role (select only one)?
- Librarian: 44%
- Library administrator: 40%
- University administrator outside the Library: 11%
- Researcher/Faculty: 5%

To what extent did the Capstone experience meet your expectations?
- Exceeded my expectations: 44%
- Met my expectations: 49%
- Fell short of meeting my expectations: 7%

Building on the results of the structured pre-Capstone exercises
- Very useful: 35%
- Useful: 59%
- Not useful: 6%
ARL e-Science Institute – Summary of Capstone Event

Having an opportunity to work with my institutional team members
Very useful 65%
Useful 30%
Not useful 5%

Having an opportunity to interact with people from other Institutions
Very useful 75%
Useful 25%
Not useful 0

Building a strategic agenda
Very useful 47%
Useful 48%
Not useful 5%
How confident are you that your team is well equipped to complete a strategic agenda at your institution?

- Very confident: 38%
- Confident: 60%
- Not confident: 2%