

Leadership Fellows Program Selection Working Group

Purpose

The Leadership Fellows Program (LFP) Selection Working Group recommends a list of participants for the LFP to the LFP Task Force.

Charge

The LFP Selection Working Group evaluates application materials of potential Leadership Fellows for participation in the program and makes recommendations to the LFP Task Force for final review and decisions.

Membership

The Selection Working Group is composed of six members, including:

- Two LFP alum
- ARL Member Representative
- LFP Task Force representative
- Learning Network Committee representative

The senior director, Learning + DEI chairs the Working Group as a non-voting ex officio member.

The Selection Working Group roster is approved by the Learning Network Committee.

Terms

The Selection Working Group members serve for 6 months prior to the program start date.

Responsibilities

The Selection Working Group will meet twice during the term via video conferencing platforms for a total of 3 hours. Up to 20 hours of asynchronous work is anticipated for the term.

The Selection Working Group is responsible for:

- Reviewing, engaging with, and developing a shared understanding of processes and criteria for evaluating applications and selecting potential Leadership Fellows
- Evaluating application materials and generating a ranked list of recommendations for review by the Task Force
- Providing feedback on their experience as Selection Working Group members.

Decision-Making

The Selection Working Group makes recommendations to the Task Force for selecting Leadership Fellows.

Code of Conduct

The Task Force adheres to the ARL Code of Conduct in all of its deliberations and activities.

Approved by the Executive Director May 2020
Updated by the Executive Director July 2023